About the developer workshops and B2B meetings

To complement the brand exposure and B2B meetings at the UK Group Pavilion, DIT proposes to organise workshops with Chinese developers.

This established format at developer HQ offices in Beijing provides UK companies a unique insight into the plans and needs of the developers, the regions and their partners and establishes key relationships with commercial leads.

A typical workshop programme first half of the meeting is a series of short company presentations followed by breakout discussions into relevant technical groups.
